THE MILLER LAW FIRM DEMONSTRATES THE ABILITY OF MICHIGAN LAWYERS TO LEAD NATIONAL LITIGATION.

The firm is committed to maintaining the vitality of class actions as a means to vindicate the rights of injured consumers and shareholders. In the last two years, The Miller Law Firm has been co-Lead Counsel in two class action lawsuits that obtained a full cash recovery of all damages for class members, even after payment of attorneys' fees. In one case brought on behalf of a class of 1,200 employees who claimed their bonus compensation was improperly reduced, The Miller Law Firm obtained national class certification, summary judgment on liability, and a settlement whereby class members received 100 percent of their claims in cash—$10.1 million—without any reduction for payment of attorneys' fees. In another pending case, The Miller Law Firm obtained an agreement pending court approval in which 300,000 subscribers of a telecommunications company will receive 100 percent cash refunds—totalling millions of dollars—for being overcharged on their plans with no reduction to pay for attorneys' fees.

Consistent with the firm's commitment to protecting the vitality of the class action device, The Miller Law Firm also defends companies victimized by spurious class action suits.
